Information concerning the processing of personal data of the participants of the project Craft Fair within The Jagiellonian Fair – promotion of traditional artists”

1. We hereby inform you that Workshops of Culture in Lublin, with their registered office at Grodzka 5a, 20-112 Lublin are the Controller of the personal data of the participants of the “Craft Fair organised within The Jagiellonian Fair – promotion of traditional artists”, hereinafter referred to as “the project”.

2. Your personal data will be processed for the purposes of organising the project, including for carrying out the event, participant registration, and archiving (evidence keeping) for securing information in case a legal need arises to demonstrate facts, which is a legitimate interest of Workshops of Culture (pursuant to art. 6 sec. 1 let. A and b of the General Data Protection Regulation of 27 April 2016 further referred to as GDPR). Your personal data will not be subject to automated processing, including profiling.

3. Access to your personal data may be given to the following recipients of personal data: the controller's authorized personnel and co-workers as well as Service Providers and their authorized personnel who have been entrusted, on the basis of an agreement, with the processing of Personal Data for services delivered for the Administrator, especially entities operating the IT systems.

4. Your personal data will be stored until consent has been withdrawn.

5. Workshops of Culture have selected a Data Protection Supervisor whom you can contact in matters related to the protection of your personal data and the exercise of your rights via e-mail: iodo@warsztatykultury.pl or in writing to the address of Workshops of Culture in Lublin specified in point 1. Please bear in mind that before your rights are executed, we must identify you appropriately.

6. The data subject may exercise the following rights against the Controller:

- a) the right to request access to their Personal Data and to rectify them (in accordance with Articles 15 and 16 of the GDPR)
- b) the right to demand restricting the processing of their data in situations and on the terms specified in Article 17 of the GDPR ("right to be forgotten"),
- c) the right to object, at any time, to the processing of their Personal Data for reasons related to their specific circumstances, in accordance with Article 21(1) of the GDPR.
- d) The right to withdraw, at any time, the consent for processing personal data. The withdrawal of the consent shall not affect the processing based on consent before its withdrawal. .
- e) You have the right to lodge a complaint about the processing of your personal data to the personal data protection supervisory authority when you deem that the processing of your personal data breaches GDPR regulations of 27 April 2016.

7. Giving the Organizer personal data is voluntary but the refusal to provide it will make it impossible to promote traditional artists on the website www.jarmarkjagiellonski.pl and in other promotional materials of The Jagiellonian Fair's Organiser.
